at 0822 CBPO [REDACTED] (b)(6)(b)(7)(G) and CBPO [REDACTED] (b)(6)(b)(7)(C) escorted pax LAURA POITRAS d.o.b. 02/02/1964 to PP Secondary. At 0827 CBPO [REDACTED] (b)(6)(b)(7)(C) assisted pax Poitras in retrieving her checked baggage from the baggage claim. Pax Poitras two checked bags were brought into secondary for inspection. Pax Poitras also had one carry on bag and one purse. At 0835 CBPO [REDACTED] (b)(6)(b)(7)(C) started searching pax Poitras baggage. During the baggage search Pax Poitras engaged in conversation, stating that this was the 15th time she had been stopped and escorted from the flight and questioned. Pax Poitras stated that she was a film maker and made the documentary film "My Country" about the war in Iraq. Pax stated that since her film was released, she has been getting escorted from the plane into secondary every time she enters the US. Pax Poitras also stated that she has contacted Senator [REDACTED] (b)(6) and other Government representatives about her being "flagged" and yet she still is stopped everytime she enters the US. At 0849 the baggage search ended with negative results. PAU was notified and released pax at 0902. Pax was released from the FIS w/o incident. Pax was offered a comment card but declined it.
